

Datawise Skills for Principals

Principals shall be able to:

- Review student test and sub-test data by grade, teacher and at least 3 other demographic descriptors and be able to determine how many students are far below basic, basic, proficient, etc.
- Review a student profile
- Compare test and sub-test data over multiple years for specific groups of students
- Export student data from Datawise into an Excel spreadsheet and be able to manipulate data accordingly
- View online report cards for students
- Train K-6 teachers in the implementation of HM online testing including the scheduling and administering of Theme and Summative tests