

Software

All software purchases are to be approved by the Educational Technology and Curriculum departments to assure technical and curricular compatibility. All software installed on district computers must be legally licensed for use on that particular computer. Failure to abide by this rule may make individual employees and the district legally liable.