

Technology Volunteers

Technology volunteers who are parents or community members are a valuable asset to schools. Volunteers are allowed to work on school level websites, and basic computer hardware troubleshooting. Volunteers are not allowed to work on the network or setup servers, wireless access points, etc. Please input any technology requests to MyTechDesk for service by a district technician.