

Wireless Access

Wireless access points are not to be installed at district locations without approval from the Director of Educational Technology. While wireless access provides end users a great deal of flexibility, it is important that these devices are configured correctly for optimum security on the district network. At no time is wireless access to be provided community members or staff who live in the vicinity of a district location with wireless access via the district's network.